

Simon Rose – film editing credits include:

I have edited hundreds of documentaries since the 70s when I worked on the BBC 'Man Alive' series. Here are a few of my favourites, with the most recent first:

Cutting Edge – Millionaire Boy Racers

Arabs parade their supercars in Knightsbridge, to the annoyance of residents.

Directed and filmed by Matt Rudge
C4

Louis Theroux – Extreme Love – Dementia

How sufferers and their carers cope.

"A poignant piece of television that made Louis Theroux's previous work seem almost frivolous" Telegraph

Directed and filmed by Daniel Child
BBC 2

Sons of Cuba

A feature documentary set in the Havana boxing academy where 12 year olds are moulded into future Olympic champions.

"Knockout editing" Indiewire

"Precision cutting" Variety

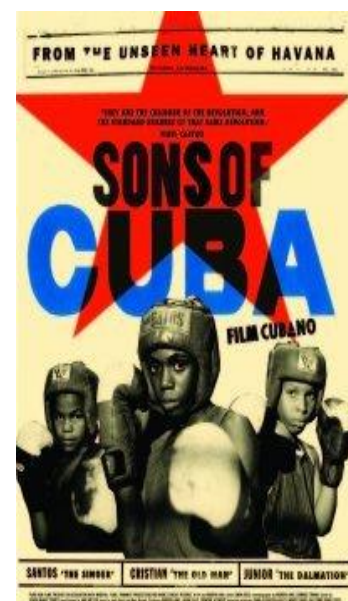

"A delicate balance of drama, politics and entertainment"

The Hollywood Reporter

Winner of 14 international awards.

Directed and Produced by Andy Lang

www.sonsofcuba.com

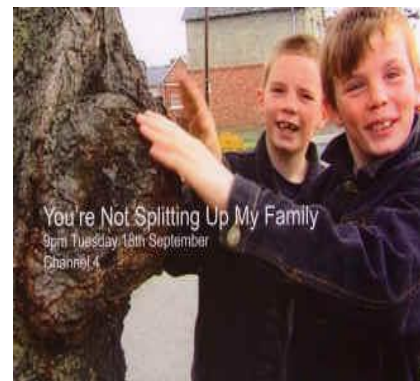

You're Not Splitting Up My Family

The Cox twins' involvement with social services, filmed over a decade.

2007 RTS Award 'Best Observational Documentary'
"Extraordinary and absolutely outstanding. A prime example of what documentary could and should do"
RTS Jury

Filmed and Directed by Nichola Koratjitis
Windfall Films for C4

One Life - River Cops

Police on the Thames which became a BBC series

Filmed and Produced by Sarah Hardy for BBC1

My New Home

A five year project that followed three immigrant children as they grow up in Britain.

"Humane, uplifting and just plain all-round wonderful" The Times

Filmed and Directed by Daisy Asquith.
Ricochet for C4

I Killed John Lennon

Drama documentary based on the words of Mark Chapman

Directed by Chris Wilson.
Prime Productions for C4

Underground Britain - The Artworld Dodger

Michel Van Rijn reveals dodgy dealings in the art world

Filmed and Directed by Ben Anthony

Blast Films for BBC2

www.youtube.com/watch?v=t05Q8FQZmKA

One Life - Reg versus Blair

Reg Keys takes on Tony Blair in General Election

Produced and filmed by

Rob Davies and Alistair Cook. BBC 1

A Murder in the Family

An Englishwoman's fight to prove that her son was murdered by his Filipino wife.

"Deeply disturbing and compelling" The Gaurdian

Produced and Directed by Katinka Newman

Granada for ITV 1

Living the Dream - Goan Bonkers

A couple from Manchester set up a bar in Goa.

Produced and filmed by David Goodale, BBC2

Men of Iron

A semi-dramatized documentary about Brunel and his ships.

"Absolutely gripping stuff" Daily Mail

Directed by Rob Hartell
Windfall Films for C4

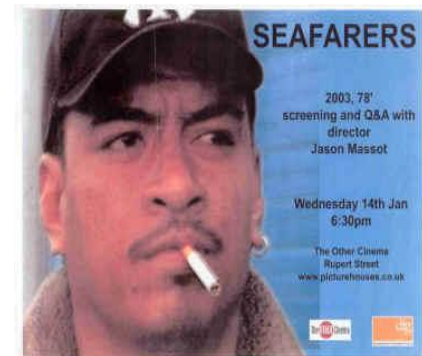

Seafarers

An independent feature documentary about merchant seamen in Rotterdam.

"A remarkable documentary" Telegraph

Produced and Filmed by Jason Massot

Marrying a Stranger - Shabba

An East End lad has an arranged marriage.

"A refreshing film about modern Muslim Life"
The Times

Filmed and Directed by Daisy Asquith
Windfall Films for C4

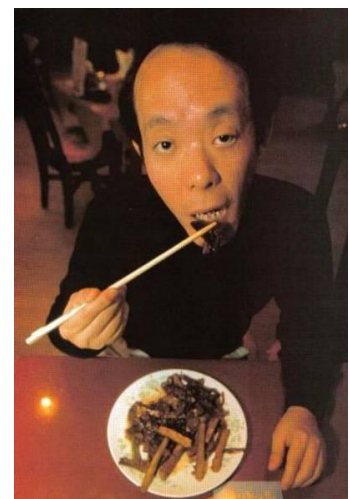

Cannibal - The Real Hannibal Lecters

Mass murderers who ate human flesh.

"more thoughtful than expected" The Observer

Directed by Katherine English.
3BM for C4 / HBO

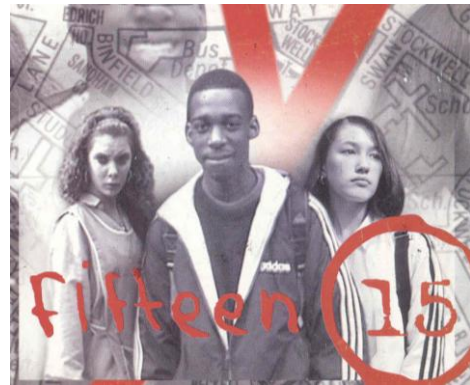

Fifteen - The Love Game

Teenagers in Brixton fall in and out of love.

The series won RTS 'best doc of 2001'
and was BAFTA nominated

Filmed and Directed by Nichola Koratjitis

*Oliver Morse (Producer),
Daisy Asquith (Director)
Simon Rose (Editor)
Nichola Koratjitis (Director)
Laurence Williamson (Editor)
by C4 poster*

Inside Clouds

2 of 4 sixty minute observational films set in a drugs and alcohol addiction treatment centre.

Produced and Filmed by Gabe Solomon and Simon Davis. BBC2

Escape from Colditz – Eureka!

WW2 escape by glider.
Partially dramatised.
CINE Grand jury prize

Produced and Directed by
Adam and Melissa English
Windfall Films for C4

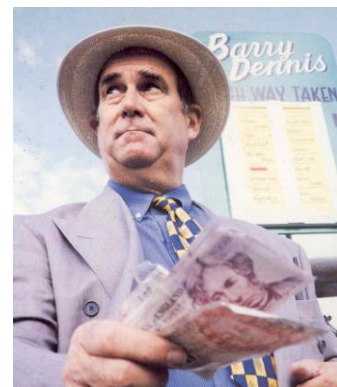

Modern Times - Bookies Never Lose

Life on the rails, as told by bookie Barry Dennis.

"A pearl of a documentary" The Independent

Filmed and Directed by Rob Davies and Alistair Cook.
BBC 1

The Decision - Dodger

Twocker and mum against social services.

Series won RTS best doc of 2000.

Filmed and Directed by Daisy Asquith
Windfall Films for C4

Only Human – Can't Stop Eating

Two people fighting Prader Willi syndrome,

Directed by David Dehaney. Love Productions for C4.

Equinox / Nova – The Real Jurassic Park

Fiction meets fact.

Glaxo Award for best science film.

Editor and Associate Producer credits.
Produced and Directed by David Dugan
Windfall Films for C4 and WGBH

Encounters / National Geographic - Thieves of Time

Dinosaur fossil poachers chased by small town sherrif.

Directed by Jane-Marie Franklin
Cunliffe and Franklin for C4

Horizon - The Man who made up his Mind

The brain/mind theory of Gerald Edelman

Produced and Directed by David Sington. BBC2

Cutting Edge – Mystery of the Pescado

Did naval submarine sink a trawler?

Directed by Simon Campbell Jones

Produced by Oliver Morse

Windfall Films for C4

Horizon - Red Star in Orbit / Nova - The Russian Right Stuff

Three 60 minute films on the epic story of cosmonauts.

Won an Emmy for best history series.

Produced and Directed by David Dugan

Windfall Films for BBC and WGBH

True Stories / Nova - Wanted: Butch and Sundance

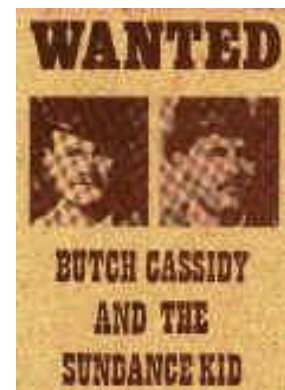

A forensic archeologist in search of the outlaws' bones.

70 minutes without commentary

Ohio state award for documentary

Produced by David Dugan

Windfall Films for BBC and WGBH

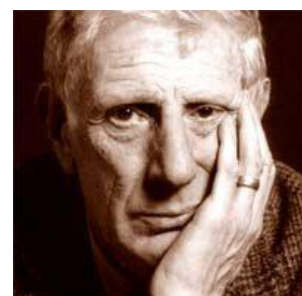

Equinox - Moving Pictures

Jonathan Miller on the magic of cinema

Produced and Directed by Michael Proudfoot

Uden Associates for C4

Under the Sun - Adios General

The demise of Pinochet as seen from a shanty town.

"A gripping story of women finding strength"
Guardian

Produced and Directed by Judy Jackson
BBC 2

Equinox – Roger McGough is The Elements

Chemistry as poetry.

"The programme itself is pure Au, that's gold"
Mail on Sunday
RTS award

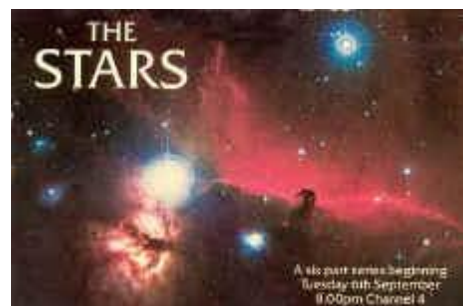

Produced and Directed by Ian Duncan
Windfall Films for C4

The Stars

3 of 6, Heather Couper on the Universe

Directed by Stuart Carter
Moving Picture Company for C4

Horizon - Professor Hawking's Universe

The first documentary about Stephen Hawking

"An engrossing PBS hour" Los Angeles Times

Produced and Directed by Fisher Dilke. BBC 2

Q.E.D. - Simon's War

The first film about Falklands casualty, Simon Weston.
70 minute special without commentary.

Nominated for Prix Italia

Produced and Directed by Steven Rose. BBC 1

Edge of Life

3 sixty minuters on the ethics of keeping very premature babies alive.
Produced and Directed by Steven Rose. BBC 2

Aids Now - City in Crisis

New York in the eighties
Produced and Directed by David Dugan. Ed Goldwyn Associates for C4

Tuesday Doc – Children of the Revolution (1978)

Life in Algeria, as recounted by its citizens.
Produced and Directed by Ivor Dunkerton. BBC 1

Omnibus - Lawrence Durrell's Greece (1976)

The writer returns to his roots.

BAFTA nominee

Produced and Directed by Peter Adam. BBC 1

Man Alive – Alright we'll do it ourselves (1972)

Community spirit in the East End lives on despite the high-rise planners;
A festival is organised by the E1 league.

(section of 65 mins here; <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sikv84m8vLE>)

Produced and Directed by Jenny Barraclough. BBC 2